

Look at This.—On the morning of the Presidential election, the Buchanan papers in Philadelphia and other cities published the following card from John Hughes:

Proclamation to all good Catholics, Christians and others.

FRIENDS, BROTHERS, AND FELLOW CITIZENS:—One of the most important eras in the religious and political affairs of this land is just upon us. Are you ready, and prepared for this momentous crisis? Will you any longer endure shame and abuse? No, and twice no. Hear us from one end of the Union to the other. Let us stand together as one man, and fight valiantly for our rights and our holy religion. In order to do this we must, to the last man, vote for James Buchanan.

Let us give him our votes, and he will be victorious. It will be a victory for our holy religion, which is the only one which can secure salvation to man. The defeat of James Buchanan is the defeat of our church universal. Therefore, by the safety of our souls, now is our time. Buchanan shall and must be elected. This is the will of God. Our church has in James Buchanan a friend and a protector, and through him can our church, under the will of God and the Pope, reach again the right position and take the place of the many sects and heretics who are abominable in the sight of our Lord. Thus then our church will triumph, and thus the lost sheep will be restored to her fold.

Only from the Democratic party can you hope for protection. Therefore, must every good Catholic vote for James Buchanan.

In the name of all Catholic Christians,
JOHN HUGHES,
Archbishop of New York.

MURDER.

On Friday, the 7th inst., a little child in its third year, Alabama Jarvis, the daughter of A. M. Jarvis, was shot through the head, and very soon thereafter expired at the house of H. Trimble, about one mile from Owensboro. The history of this sad occurrence is about as follows:

Mr. Jarvis and his wife, with their only child were occupying for the present, a part of the house of H. Trimble. On the morning of the 7th, Mr. Jarvis left home to attend to a mill which he was engaged in running; Mrs. Trimble had left home the day before on a visit to some of her relations. Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis, after breakfast, came to town, intending to return in an hour or so, and left their child in the care of a negro boy named Bill, about twelve or thirteen years old, the property of D. C. Adams, no other person remained on the premises. In a short time after the parents had left home the negro boy ran over to one of the neighbors, about fifty steps distant, and gave the information that the child he believed was dying. The neighbors ran in and found the child in a back room lying in its own blood. It breathed two or three times after it was found. In this room had been left two loaded shot guns. The guns were standing in the corner of the room where they had been left, but the load from one of the barrels of the shot gun had been discharged. The contents of the gun entered the child's face through the upper lip, and passed out at the back of the head, and lodged in the opposite wall. The shot and the ball found in the child's face, and in the wall correspond with the load in the gun. Suspicion rested upon the negro boy, and he was arrested.—Owensboro American.

MANUFACTURE OF FIREARMS.—The machinery now employed by the United States Government for the manufacture of firearms is of the most perfect description, and executes its work with wonderful celerity and precision. Probably in no department of the mechanic arts has the inventive power of the human mind been exerted with more remarkable results. One complete musket can be turned out every eighty minutes of the working day from the raw material. To produce the musket entire, two hundred and ninety-four machines and nearly five hundred distinct mechanical processes are involved. The barrel is made from iron costing two hundred dollars per ton, mostly procured from Norway, though a very excellent quality is received from Salisbury, Conn. The iron is cut up from bars into pieces of ten pounds weight and fourteen inches in length. After being drawn out to forty inches, under a high heat, the bar is curved and welded on steel rods. The barrel is then bored out, and reduced in weight from ten pounds to four and a half, after which it is polished with emery on revolving wheels, and the quality of the workmanship is not exceeded by any in the world.

CHARITY.—Charity embraces the wide circle of all possible kindness. Every good act is charity; your smiling in your brother's face is charity; an exhortation to your fellow man to virtuous deeds is equal to alms-giving; your putting a wanderer in the right road is charity; your assisting the blind is charity; your removing stones and thorns and other obstructions from the road is charity; your giving water to the thirsty is charity. A man's true wealth hereafter is the good he does in this world to his fellow man. When he dies, people will say, "What property has he left behind him?" But the angels will ask, "What good deeds has he sent before him?"—Irving.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Young girls like balls, young men like belles, brokers like bills, toppers like bowls, and cardinal-like bulls; by changing a vowel all tastes are suited.

EYES.—Mr. Noah said that a hazel eye inspires at first a Platonic sentiment, which gradually but surely expands into love as securely founded as the rock of Gibraltar. A woman with a hazel eye never clothes from her husband; her husband's comfort to her own, never finds fault, never talks too much or too little; always is an entertaining, intelligent, agreeable and lovely creature. "We never knew," says a brother editor, "but one uninteresting and unamiable woman with hazel eyes, and she had a nose which looked, as the Yankee says, like the little end of nothing whittled down to a point." The grey eye is the sign of shrewdness and talent. Great thinkers and great captains have it. In women it indicates a better head than heart. The dark hazel is noble in significance as in its beauty. The blue is amiable, but may be feeble. The black eye—take care!

SLANDER.—Against slander there is no defence. Hell cannot boast so foul a fiend, nor man deplore so foul a foe. It stabs with a word, with a nod, with a shrug, with a smile. It is the pestilence walking in darkness, spreading contagion far and wide, which the most wary traveler cannot avoid. It is the heart-searching dagger of the assassin. It is the poisoned arrow whose wound is incurable. It is as mortal as the sting of the deadly adder; murder is its employment, innocence its prey, and ruin its sport.

SWEET CONJUGALITY.—"Good morning Mr. Smith; on the sick list to day?" "Yes sir; got the ague?" "Do you ever shake?" "Yes!" "When do you shake again?" "Can't say when; shake every day." "Why do you ask?" "Oh, nothing in particular, only I thought if you shook hard, I'd like to stand by and see if you could not shake the fifteen dollars out of your pocket, which you owed me so long." Mr. Smith sloped.

HORRIBLE AFFAIR.—CHILD EATEN BY A BEAR.—Near Rocky Point, in Greenbrier county, Va., on Thursday week, at the residence of Win. T. Mann, George Fox, about fifteen years old, was instantly killed and partly eaten up by a large bear belonging to Mr. Mann. The circumstances are as follows: This boy had on the day previous been out hunting and killed a ground hog, and in carrying or skinning the same got some blood on his clothes. He not having changed his clothes went about the bear, as was usual for every one, when the bear laid hold of him around the body, and squeezed him until his ribs were broken, then knocked the boy down, with his paw, and ate very near all the flesh off his face and legs before he was dead. There being no one about the house but a lady, she was unable to relieve him.

PRESIDENT WALKER.—The daring and determined President of Nicaragua, has lately achieved some brilliant victories over the allied army of Central America. Comparatively speaking, he has but a handful of men, but they are the true grit—every one of them equal to ten of the effeminate mongrel of the South. Walker seems resolved to maintain his position, and the probabilities are that he will succeed. Recruits are flocking to his standard daily from the United States, and in a very few years, we may look for more annexation, perhaps before the close of Mr. Buchanan's administration. Central America once under the control of this Government, the filibustering doctrine of the Cincinnati platform can easily be brought to Gulf upon Cuba and other islands of the West.

THE FRENCH WINE CROP.—Letters from France state that the accounts from the vine districts respecting the result of the crop are very contradictory. In some parts of the Bordelais the produce will be indifferent, while in others, and particularly in the direction of Playe, it will exceed by one-third that of last year. Near Cannes the yield will be double the quantity expected, and the quality excellent. In the Macconnaiss some districts have been completely ravaged, but in others the vintage promises well. In Burgundy and Champagne the result will be satisfactory.

ALFRED THURSTON has resigned the office of Cashier of the Bank of Louisville in that city, and Charles Tilden has been elected his successor. It is also stated that Samuel Hughes, late teller in the same institution, has been elected Cashier of the Bank of Louisville at Paducah, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Adam Rankin.

GREAT FISHING.—Four gentlemen of this city had extraordinary luck in catching smelts yesterday. They fished with pole and line, from 8 o'clock in the morning to 2 1/2 P. M., and caught one hundred and eighty-four and four smelts, during the six hours and a half. We doubt whether so large a number as 2,164 fish were ever before taken with lines by four persons in so short a time.—Boston Transcript.

A young lady, once, in attempting to conjugate a verb, said—"I will marry, thou wilt marry, he will marry, you will marry, they will marry, and we'll all feed the babies together!"

—Thomas B. Smith, Clerk under the Postmaster General, has been appointed Marshall for the Southern District of Ohio, in place of Hiram H. Robinson, resigned.

Hurrah for Fillmore!
Hurrah for Donelson!

HYALINE.—An eccentric individual standing upon a bridge, and gazing upon a youth angling in the stream below, gives vent to his feelings in the following inquiry:

"Adolence, what art thou doing? Art thou endeavoring to entice the finny tribe to engulf into their denticulated mouths a barbed hook, upon whose point thou hast fixed a dainty allurements?"

"No sir," said the boy, "I'm fishing."

—Women are like peaches. The further you go South the sooner they become ripe. A girl in Canada seldom knows "what's what," until she is twenty. In Baltimore this knowledge is acquired by the time they are 15.

Look out for notes on "Bank of Chicago," Ills., and "Farmers' Bank of Genesee County," Flint rapids, Michigan they are fraudulent, and will rest heavy in your pockets.
